MNDOT ROLLS OUT TRIP PLANNER

Pilot program to make rural travel more seamless | March 1, 2023

Minnesota Department of Transportation (MnDOT) is working with the Transit app and 13 rural public transportation providers and intercity bus companies to offer integrated trip planning and (in some cases) payment in southern and western Minnesota. Through this pilot program, travelers can find route and other trip information from various transportation providers all within the Transit app. Some of the participating providers also offer in-app ticketing. This one-year pilot is funded by the Federal Transit Administration (FTA) and aims to bring improved trip planning and payment beyond the big cities.

KANSAS CITY LAUNCHES IRIS SERVICE

Partnership for app-based, on-demand transportation | March 15, 2023

The City of Kansas City, together with the Kansas City Area Transportation Authority (KCATA), zTrip, and RideCo, has launched IRIS, an on-demand mobility service that will operate 24/7 in Kansas City, Missouri. Beginning March 15, travelers can use the IRIS website or app from RideCo to book rides in a cab or IRIS-only vehicle. zTrip cabs serving IRIS will have designated logos. The vehicles will transport customers within a quarter mile of their designated pick-up and drop-off locations within the program service area. Travelers can pay for IRIS rides when booking or boarding.
